

DAISY AWARD FOR EXTRAORDINARY NURSES

2019

March

Mai Menes

1st Surgical

“The positive energy she exudes at all times is infectious.”

May

Sepideh Hadian

Telemetry Oncology

“She spoke from experience, with wisdom, and with the most, gentle tone.”

June

Erianna Caroll & Jeremy Bounds

4th Medical Cardiology

“My son has been home for about 2 weeks now and he still talks about “E” and Jeremy. It was a great experience and made my son really happy.”

July

Jerlon Burton

Progressive Care Unit

“Jerlon took the patient to the main lobby to play the piano. By the time we went downstairs, the patient was smiling and singing. Words can’t picture the emotions on his face.”

DAISY AWARD FOR EXTRAORDINARY NURSES

2019

August

Alethea Cash

1st Surgical

“She was so personable and professional I was taken aback, this level of engagement is similar to that of an old friend who you trust completely.”

September

Aimee Estolas

Progressive Care Unit

“She was attentive and professional and kind and warm and gave us all such a good feeling of care.”

October

Alicia Kirkman

Emergency Department

“But the best words to describe her are going above and beyond her job scope in a caring, compassionate way when time is of the essence!”

November

Rebekah Webber

Emergency Department

“I was alone with nowhere to turn that Sunday night but Becky was there.”

DAISY AWARD FOR EXTRAORDINARY NURSES

2020

January
Nidia Perez-Bonilla
Transitional Care Unit
“Words are not enough to describe Nidia as she exemplifies what a nurse should be.”

February
Nicole Iocona
CV Services
“She calmed us all down and especially me. She is quite a person, nurse, encourager and all-around wonderful lady.”

March
Lindsey Burrell
Intensive Care Unit
“Even when I was in tears, she sat with me and took the time to talk to me to ease my fears and told me she would make sure that I would get better and get back home.”

April
COULD BE YOU
In order to honor both the in person Daisy celebration and social distancing, Daisy ceremonies have been slightly delayed.
