2. Caregiver: Refers to all workforce members of Providence.
3. Disability: The term "disability" is defined by the federal government in various ways, depending on the context. For the purposes of federal disability nondiscrimination laws (such as the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Section 188 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act), the definition of a person with a disability is typically defined as someone who (1) has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more "major life activities," (2) has a record of such an impairment, or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment. More information on federal disability non-discrimination laws, visit DOL's Disability Nondiscrimination Law Advisor.
 - In States Other than Washington: Means with respect to an individual, a physical or mental impairment that, in Alaska, Montana, New Mexico, Oregon and Texas substantially limits, or in California limits, one or more major life activities of such individual; a record of such an impairment; or being regarded as having such an impairment, as defined in 42 U.S.C. 12102, as amended;
 - In Washington: RCW Ch.49.60.040 (7)
 - a. "Disability" means the presence of a sensory, mental, or physical impairment that:
 - i. Is medically cognizable or diagnosable; or
 - ii. Exists as a record or history; or
 - iii. Is perceived to exist whether or not it exists in fact.

- b. A disability exists whether it is temporary or permanent, common or uncommon, mitigated or unmitigated, or whether or not it limits the ability to work generally or work at a particular job or whether or not it limits any other activity within the scope of this chapter.
 - c. For purposes of this definition, "impairment" includes, but is not limited to:
 - i. Any physiological disorder, or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: Neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense organs, respiratory, including speech organs, cardiovascular, reproductive, digestive, genitor-urinary, hemic and lymphatic, skin, and endocrine; or
 - ii. Any mental, developmental, traumatic, or psychological disorder, including but not limited to cognitive limitation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities.
4. Discrimination on the Basis of Sex: Discrimination on the basis of sex includes but is not limited to discrimination on the basis of pregnancy, false pregnancy, termination of pregnancy, or recovery therefrom, childbirth or related medical conditions, gender or sex stereotyping, and gender identity.
5. Gender Identity Gender identity for some refers to a person's innate, deeply felt psychological sense of gender, which may or may not correspond to the person's body or sex assigned at birth.
 - Gender identity is frequently confused with sexual orientation, but the two concepts are different. Sexual orientation refers to how we interact with and are attracted to others, while gender identity refers to how we see ourselves. Just like gender-conforming people, transgender people can be of any sexual orientation.
 - Transgender As indicated above, society has traditionally expected persons who were assigned as a particular sex at birth to behave a certain way in relation to their gender: males are expected to behave in a "masculine" way, females in a "feminine" way. Transgender is an umbrella term covering anyone whose gender identity or expression does not conform to society's expectations for, or stereotypes about, people assigned a particular sex.
As an umbrella term, the word "transgender" is an adjective that covers a wide spectrum of people whose gender identity differs from their sex assigned at birth. Transgender also includes persons who are gender non-conforming. Gender non-conforming people may not consider themselves transgender, but have an appearance or gender expression that does not conform to gender stereotypes.
6. Gender Expression Gender expression refers to how a person represents, or expresses, their gender identity to others – through appearance, dress, mannerisms, speech patterns, social interactions, and other characteristics and behaviors.
7. Health Program or Activity: Means the provision or administration of health-related services, and provision of assistance to individuals in obtaining health-related services or insurance coverage.ⁱⁱⁱ
8. Limited English Proficiency: Means an individual whose primary language for communication is not English and who has a limited ability to read, write, speak or understand English.

9. National Origin: Includes, but is not limited to, an individual's, or their ancestor's, place of origin (such as country or world region) or an individual's manifestation of the physical, cultural, or linguistic characteristics of a national original group.

Consistent with Providence's Mission and Core Values, it is the policy of Providence to not discriminate against, exclude, or treat differently any individuals accessing any Providence Program or Activity on any basis prohibited by local, state or federal laws, including but not limited to on the basis of race, color, religious creed (including religious dress and grooming practices), national origin (including certain language use restrictions), ancestry, disability (mental and physical including HIV and AIDS), medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), marital status, age, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions, gender, gender identity, gender expression and sexual orientation, genetic information (including family medical history), or military/veteran status as those terms are defined under federal and state laws and rules. Providence applies all appropriate federal and/or state protections for religious freedom and conscience. Such services may include providing Qualified Bilingual/Multilingual Staff, Qualified Interpreters, and Qualified Translation free of charge as needed or appropriate.

Providence has established applicable grievance procedures for individuals accessing any Providence Program or Activity, which provides for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging violations of applicable federal or state laws that prohibit discrimination, including but not limited to Sections 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA) and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act (42 U.S.C. 18116), and its implementing regulations at 45 CFR part 92 (collectively referred to below as "Section 1557"). Any person who believes that someone accessing a Providence Program or Activity has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of race, color, religious creed (including religious dress and grooming practices), national origin (including certain language use restrictions), ancestry, disability (mental and physical including HIV and AIDS), medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), marital status, age, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions, gender, gender identity, gender expression and sexual orientation, genetic information (including family medical history), or military/veteran status may file a grievance under this procedure. It is against the law for Providence to retaliate against anyone who opposes discrimination, files a grievance, or participates in the investigation of a grievance. Human Resources also maintains a policy on this topic.
