

Public Meeting on the Proposed Sale and Transfer of Control of Providence Queen of the Valley Medical Center

On November 17, 2026 at 1:00 p.m. PST, the Attorney General will conduct a public meeting in the Le Puy Conference Room at Queen of the Valley Medical Center (QVMC), located at 1000 Trancas Street, Napa, CA 94558. The purpose of the public meeting is to receive comments on the proposed sale of QVMC, a hospital with 198 licensed general acute care beds. The Attorney General is reviewing the proposed sale pursuant to Corporations Code section 5920 et seq.

Under the Purchase Agreement, St. Joseph Health Northern California LLC and Providence Medical Foundation will sell and transfer control of all of the assets used in the operation of QVMC and its multi-specialty clinics located in Napa County to NorthBay Healthcare. Providence states that the purpose of the sale is to further the sustained provision of health care services for patients located in Napa County and the surrounding areas, in furtherance of the charitable purposes of the parties.

The public is encouraged to present their views on the proposed transaction either at the public meeting, by email at HealthTransactions@doj.ca.gov, or by mail at ATTN: Heidi Lehrman, Healthcare Rights and Access Section, 1300 I Street, Sacramento, CA 95814. The deadline for receipt of written comments is November 20, 2026.
