
Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record
- Correct your paper or electronic medical record
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated

Your Choices

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Tell family and friends about your condition
- Provide disaster relief
- Include you in a hospital directory
- Provide mental health care
- Raise funds
- Participate in Health Information Exchange(s) (HIEs)

Our Uses and Disclosures

We may use and share your information as we:

- Treat you
- Run our organization
- Bill for your services

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no,” such as if it would affect your care.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes (to the extent that an activity is defined as “marketing” under a federal medical privacy law called “HIPAA”)
- Sale of your information (to the extent that an activity is defined as a “sale of protected health information” under HIPAA)
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

In the case of fundraising:

- We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

In the case of our participation in internal Health Information Exchange(s) (HIEs) and external HIE networks:

- We may share your information electronically with other organizations.
- Individual information that requires a signed authorization by you for release through an HIE WILL NOT be made available to an HIE without your authorization, unless we are required by law to submit your information.
- If you do not want your information to be shared in this way, you can opt out at: <https://www.provshare.org/health-information-exchange/for-patients/> or by calling us toll-free at (833)-990-1900. If you opt out, your health care providers treating you can ask for your information in another way instead of accessing the information through the HIE.

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you

Help with public health and safety issues

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

Do research

We can use or share your information for health research.

Comply with the law

We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests

We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

development of new healthcare technologies. We may receive payment for the de-identified information.

Special Categories of Medical Information

We will follow federal and state laws that may offer additional protections beyond this notice regarding your information such as those that are related to uses and disclosures of mental/behavioral health, drug and alcohol abuse, HIV tests and genetic testing information.

State Specific Requirements

Some states have separate privacy laws that may apply additional protections to the uses and disclosures of your information. If a state privacy law is more stringent than what is described in this notice in the way that we use or share your information, we will follow the applicable state law.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that is likely to have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

Relation to Permissions and Requirements under Federal and State Medical Privacy Laws

This notice of privacy practices is intended to provide an explanation of your medical privacy rights and our responsibilities in plain, understandable language. The laws governing medical privacy are themselves highly complex. To improve readability, this notice summarizes our obligations and does not include every legal exception that may apply. If we have not included exceptions that are available under the law, this notice should not be read to suggest that the exceptions do not apply. Providence does not intend for this notice to create greater obligations or restrictions on Providence than those required by law.
