

2026 Summer Internship Application

Please read through the following sections carefully and answer as accurately as possible.

Full name (first, middle, last):.....

Address:

Phone Number: (.....)-

Email (Personal email, not school affiliated):.....

The following is a list of our requirements, please read through carefully and answer the questions below:

- At least college-level general biology, introductory chemistry or introductory computer science completed.
- Available for the full 9-week summer session (typically five days per week, M-F, approximately 8:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.) vacation requests during this time are typically not approved, please plan accordingly.
- Minimum GPA of 3.0 (4.0 scale)
- Undergraduate freshman, sophomore or junior who is considering a biomedical research career as a Ph.D.-trained scientist
- Must be 18 or over as of May 1, 2026. No exceptions, this is a Providence policy and cannot be adjusted.

What year in college will you be for Fall 2026 term:

Freshman

Sophomore

Junior

Senior

What is your overall GPA (if you will be a freshman in college in September 2026 please enter your high school GPA)?

Will you be 18 years or older by May 1st, 2026?

Yes

No

Can you commit to working the full 9-week program, from June 15th through August 14th, 2026?

Yes

No

After reading through the requirements of this internship, do you have any concerns or need to request time accommodation? If so, please explain below:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Use the following page to introduce yourself:

Give a one-page description of your goals, scientific interests and prior research experience: