PSJH-CPP-733 Nonretaliation

Executive Sponsor:	Darryl Elmouchi, MD, Chief Operations Officer
Policy Owner:	David Lane, VP, Chief Compliance Officer
Contact Person:	Karen J. Coleman, Director, Compliance Services

Scope:

This policy applies to Providence and its Affiliatesⁱ (collectively known as “Providence”) and its workforce (caregivers, volunteers, trainees, interns, apprentice, students), independent contractors, vendors and all other individuals working at the ministry, whether they are paid by or under the direct control of the facility); employees of affiliated organizations (collectively, “workforce members”).

Yes No Is this policy applicable to Providence Global Center (PGC) caregivers?

This is a management level policy reviewed and recommended by the Policy Advisory Committee (PAC) to consider for approval by senior leadership which includes vetting by Executive Council with final approval by the President, Chief Executive Officer or appropriate delegate.

Purpose:

To establish a policy that protects workforce members from retaliation or harassment for having raised concerns about actual or potential wrongdoing or misconduct.

Definitions:

1. Retaliation: Any adverse action taken against a workforce member because the workforce member has, in good faith, reported wrongdoing or has, in good faith, cooperated in/with an investigation. Adverse actions may include actions such as scheduling changes, physical relocation, adverse evaluations, paid administrative leave, and termination. Retaliation is prohibited by law.
2. Workforce member is defined as all employees, volunteers, trainees, independent contractors, vendors, and other persons under direct control of a Providence entity, whether they are paid by Providence.
3. Wrongdoing may include, but is not limited to:
 - Illegal or fraudulent activity.
 - Financial misstatements, or accounting or auditing irregularities.
 - Conflicts of interests, or dishonest or unethical conduct.
 - Violations of the Code of Conduct.
 - Violations of applicable laws, rules, regulations, and/or policies.
4. Compliance Program is fully described in the Board approved Providence Compliance Program Description and includes the Codes of Conduct and a number of integrity and compliance policies for our family of organizations.

Policy:

Workforce members have a responsibility and duty to promptly report concerns about actual or potential wrongdoing – including violations of Providence's Compliance Program – through proper channels and are not permitted to overlook such actual or potential wrong-doing.

Providence prohibits retaliation against any workforce member for making a good-faith report of their concerns about actual or potential wrong-doing – including violations of the Providence Compliance Program. Retaliation is also prohibited against any workforce member who in good faith assists in the investigation of any reported concern. Any manager, supervisor, employee, or other workforce member who engages in retaliation or harassment is subject to discipline or other appropriate corrective action up to and including termination.

Requirements:

1. The responsibility to report and the commitment to an environment free from retaliation are communicated to workforce members through regular integrity and compliance education, their managers, and through the Providence Compliance Program.
2. Workforce members cannot exempt themselves from the consequences of wrong-doing or inadequate performance by reporting such wrong-doing or inadequate performance. However, the consequences of wrong-doing or inadequate performance may not, in any case, be more severe because a workforce member reported it on their own initiative.
3. A workforce member may file reports of incidents of retaliation or suspected retaliation either by identifying themselves or anonymously. Good faith reports of retaliation or suspected retaliation will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an appropriate investigation.

4. Any concerns regarding potential retaliation should be reported to the Divisional Compliance Office, Risk Department or Human Resources for investigation and resolution.
